

KOIVUNIEMI IT SERVICES

RESPOND TO GROWING ICT REQUIREMENTS

True expertise is still necessary for getting the most out of IT in business. Despite the ongoing development of higher level IT products and standards, you still need both business-oriented insight and innovative 'nerd skills' for building well-functioning IT architecture and keeping costs reasonable.

FROM SPECIFICATIONS TO OPERATIONS

We are a team of ICT professionals with a wide variety of expertise. Your business objectives will be turned into cost-effective development steps. We will also roll up our sleeves to take those steps, and produce portals, customized applications, mobile solutions and incredible integrations – all with high-quality maintenance and operation.

COMPETITIVE TOP QUALITY

We operate at the cutting edge of technological development and use open standard solutions as far as possible. As a reliable partner, we allocate enough resources for each project and never leave a customer in a lurch. We aim to preserve what works, so that you can avoid excess costs and extend the life cycle of your systems.

Best of all, we can also keep our prices competitive, thanks to our high-quality expertise and advanced methods. Contact us today!
